The Littleton Chorale - one of the metro area's outstanding choral music organizations - announces auditions for the 2011-2012 season!

The Littleton Chorale draws singers from throughout the Colorado Front Range and frequently collaborates in performance with outstanding instrumental ensembles including the Colorado Chamber Orchestra, Littleton Symphony Orchestra and Colorado Wind Ensemble. Michael Todd Krueger, music director and conductor, continues the exciting tradition and vision of presenting outstanding performances for the Littleton Community and the entire South Metro Denver area. If you have a passion for singing and the desire to be part of an organization of talented and motivated individuals, consider auditioning for The Littleton Chorale. Auditions are 10 minutes in length and consist of: 1) simple warm-ups and vocalizations; 2) the singing of a familiar melody like "My Country 'Tis Of Thee"; 3) sight singing and rhythmic exercises; 4) pitch memory exercises.

Audition Date and Times:

September 12, 5:30-7:00 pm or by appointment

Regular rehearsals are held on Mondays from 7-9:30 pm at Littleton United Methodist Church, beginning September 12, 2011.
